Countdown to Kindergarten Launch
Join us on Saturday, April 27 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Creative Discovery Museum for their Countdown to Kindergarten event. There will be many hands-on activities to allow rising kindergartners to prepare for the coming school year. Please click the button below for more information.
Summer Enrichment Opportunities

Keeping children engaged and active during the summer months is vital to continuing their growth as a student. Hamilton County Schools is offering a wide variety of programming this summer to help students avoid the “summer slide” and advance their learning into the next school year. School Climate Survey

Congratulations to the following schools for having the highest participation rates for our recent School Climate Survey!

- Hixson Middle School - Student Participation
- Hixson High School - Student Participation
- Soddy Daisy Middle School - Staff Participation
- DuPont Elementary - Staff Participation
Bilingual Book Night
Recently, several of advanced Spanish students from Soddy Daisy High School went to an event at the Soddy Daisy community library. They hosted a bilingual book night for elementary kids. Students read books in Spanish and English to about 20-25 children, helped with crafts and taught them color words.

Cyber Generations
The Hixson High AFJROTC Cadets have a program available to them called Cyber Generations. This program is an extension of the Cyber Patriot cyber defense program that our cadets participate it each year. This program was created by the Air Force Association and is aimed at teaching senior citizens how to operate on the internet safely.
WGI World Championship

Congratulations to the Soddy Daisy High School Winter Guard for their recent performance at the Winter Guard International World Championships held at Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio.
